

Union Day School Parent Teacher Organization

The Union Day Parent Teacher Organization's mission is to foster a positive and productive relationship between parents, teachers and students by connecting opportunities within the home, school and community. The non-profit organization provides assistance to our teachers within classroom settings, raises funds for educational materials, tools and experiences, advocates school and family social interaction and provides an unbiased forum for sharing information on issues impacting our students. It is our belief that the team effort of parents and teachers in our organization provides for the best possible learning environment and most successful outcome for our students.
